Frequently Asked Questions

1. Can I accumulate points over time?

Yes, every time you order from ADCO's Safety Award Store you earn points towards your total, bringing you closer to that free roundtrip flight voucher. You do not need to get your points all in one order.

2. How many points do I need to earn a free round-trip flight voucher?

You need to earn a total of 12,000 points.

3. How long are my points valid for?

Points are valid for up to two years after awarded.

4. Is there a limit to the number of points that I can earn?

No. You will continuously earn points for every purchase. Once you have enough points, use them toward your round-trip flight voucher. Save points and redeem multiple vouchers at any time. You may repeat this process as often as you would like.

5. Who can use the voucher?

The flight voucher is redeemable by anyone including: employees, co-workers, friends and family.

6. How do I make my travel arrangements?

Instructions accompany the voucher. All air travel is booked directly through

7. How do I get my voucher for the free round-trip flight?

Contact ADCO's Safety Award Store either by phone 888-289-8635 or email rewards@SafetyAwardStore.com. We will have your points traded up for the flight voucher and mailed to you within ten business days.

7. Is this a frequent flyer program?

No. This is not a frequent flyer program and is in no way associated with how often you fly. This is a loyalty reward program offered to customers of ADCO's Safety Award Store.
